The WPA Murals

Gloucester was one of the many beneficiaries of the Federal Art Project mural program under the Works Progress administration. From 1935 through 1942, murals were painted by such distinguished artists as Charles Allen Winter, Frederick Mulhaupt and Oscar Anderson. They constitute a treasure considered of great note by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, they depict the history and ideals of the city on the walls of its seat of government.

Please join us at a lecture in celebration of these murals, and the program that created them.
