

GLOUCESTER MEETINGHOUSE FOUNDATION

presents

The Silent movie 'WAXWORKS'

Accompanied by PETER KRASINSKI, ORGANIST

In the Sanctuary on Sunday, October 21, 2018, 3:30pm

Corner of Middle & Church Street, Gloucester, MA

EVENT DESCRIPTION

As Halloween approaches, maestro of the pipe-organ and sonic artist Peter Krasinski returns to the Meetinghouse to accompany the scary silent movie 'Waxworks.' As in past years, Peter will perform on the sonorous 1893 Hutchings-Fisk organ to the delight of the audience, young and old. A short film, featuring Douglas Fairbanks, called the 'Electric House' will open the show.

HIGHLIGHTS

'Waxworks' is a 1924 German horror-fantasy film (Das Wachsfigurenkabinett) directed by Paul Leni. The plot is about a poet hired by the owner of a wax museum in a circus to write tales about Harun al Raschid, Ivan the Terrible and Jack the Ripper. While writing, the poet and the daughter of the owner, Eva, fantasize the fantastic stories and fall in love for each other.

TICKETS at the door, cash, check or credit card

Adults	$20
Students	$10
12 & Under	Free

MORE INFO

The Gloucester Meetinghouse (home of the Unitarian Universalist Church) is located on the green at the corner of Church and Middle Street. An elevator up to the Sanctuary level is available from the side entrance at 10 Church Street. Event parking is allowed on the green. For anyone unable to pay, limited free tickets are available. This event is presented in collaboration with Cape Ann Cinema & Stage. Online information at:

info@gloucestermeetinghouse.org

NOT FOR PUBLICATION, CONTACT PERSON

Charles Nazarian, President, Gloucester Meetinghouse Foundation

Cell: 978-821-5291

c.nazarian@gloucestermeetinghouse.com

chasnaz@gmail.com