

Jane Deering Gallery
November 27 - December 27 . 2020

Winter Light

A LIGHT INSTALLATION BY ADIN MURRAY

As the darkness grows longer and we await the return of the sun, “Winter Light” is a beacon of warmth meant to stir the soul.

An installation rooted in nature that began on a walk with my daughter and a couple of phragmites we held aloft like two Seussian drum majors.

— Adin Murray

stalks of phragmites used in Murray's functional sculptures

Gallery hours : Saturdays & Sundays 1- 3pm and by appointment 19 Pleasant Street . Gloucester MA . 917-902-4359 . info@janedeeringgallery.com

Adin Murray was born and raised in Manchester, Massachusetts. He received his BA in Art/Biology from Tulane University, and his MFA from the Savannah College of Art and Design. His work has been shown at the Woodruff Art Center in Atlanta, the Rymer Gallery in Nashville, the Pei-Ling Chan Gallery in Savannah, among others. His work has been featured in Faultline, the University of California, Irvine's literary and art publication, and has also appeared in Southern Living and North Shore Magazines, as well as the Boston Globe. Adin and his wife, author Elizabeth H. Winthrop were also included in the ongoing online project Urban Exodus. His work is held in both private and corporate collections nationally and internationally. He is represented by the Jane Deering Gallery. Adin currently lives and works on Cape Ann, Massachusetts.

